

Evelyn Brooks

Professor Emerita | Art

SAMPLE CURRICULUM VITAE - All appointments, qualifications, publications and awards are fictional. This document demonstrates a faculty CV download.

evelyn.brooks@example.org | 631-555-0114

Profile

Evelyn Brooks is a professor emerita of art whose creative practice explores the relationship between memory, place and public space. Working across installation, photography and community archives, she considers how everyday objects and personal accounts become part of a shared history. Her projects often begin with walking, conversation and close observation of a neighborhood.

Education and training

MFA, Example School of Art, 1990

BA, Art History, Example College, 1986

Academic and professional experience

Professor Emerita, Department of Art, Example University, 2021-present.

Professor of Art, Example University, 2004-2021.

Associate Professor, Example University, 1997-2004.

Visiting Artist, Example School of Art, 1993-1997.

Independent studio practice, 1990-present.

Areas of expertise

Public art; visual culture; community archives

Evelyn Brooks | Selected activities

Creative practice

All exhibitions and works below are fictional samples.

Shared Landscapes - Example Gallery, 2025; installation, annotated maps and listening stations.

Archive of a Neighborhood - Example Museum, 2023; photographs and community-contributed objects.

Routes and Returns - Example Arts Center, 2021; site-responsive installation.

Everyday Monuments - Example Project Space, 2018; sculpture and photographic series.

Teaching

ART XXX - Public Art Studio; advanced undergraduate; site-responsive work and documentation.

ART YYY - Visual Culture and Memory; seminar; archives, photographs and public histories.

ART ZZZ - Collaborative Practice; graduate; project planning, dialogue and critique.

Service and leadership

Advisory member, fictional Community Archives Collective, 2021-present.

Former chair, Example Studio Curriculum Committee, 2012-2016.

Illustrative visiting critic, Example Regional Arts Program, 2025.

Honors and recognition

Example Arts Fellowship, 2020.

Illustrative Award for Collaborative Creative Practice, 2017.

Example Studio Teaching Recognition, 2012.