

8-HOUR CERTIFICATE COURSE FOR CAMPUS PROFESSIONALS IN RECOGNIZING AND RESPONDING TO SEXUAL AND RELATIONSHIP VIOLENCE ON CAMPUS

The Center for Prevention and Outreach (CPO) and the Program in Public Health (PPH), along with our community partners at the VIBS Family Violence and Rape Crisis Center are pleased to offer Stony Brook campus professionals this Department of Justice-approved course. This workshop will explore the issues of sexual violence (including harassment, assault and rape) and relationship violence (also known as domestic violence or intimate partner violence) among college students. It will examine definitions, prevalence, myths and facts, perpetrator characteristics, victim experience and barriers to reporting. Participants will be provided with information and strategies to promote intervention and referral to on- and off-campus resources.

The workshop will also emphasize the responsibility University professionals have to address violence on campus, and the role faculty and staff can play in creating a campus culture that does not condone violence in any form.
